SECOND DAY'S SESSION.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE PRESENTE. RIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Chinese Exclusion Act Considered. Dr. Duncan Discourses of Church Unity_Reports Read.

WASHINGTON, May 19.-The devotional exercises which opened the second day's session of the Preabyterian General Assembly were conducted by Rev. Dr. Smith, of Baltimore.

Previous to the reading of the minutes of 'yesterday, Permanent Clerk Moore requested that the brother who had exchanged overcoats with him come and get his own, also that the person who had the moderator's overcoat be requested to return it.

Rev. Mr. McCauley, of Dayton, Ohlo, moved the reconsideration of the vote of yesterday on the World's Fair Sunday opening for the purpose of offering a substitute for that resolution going more into detail.

A reconsideration was refused by an almost unanimous vote. Mr. McCauley then moved to add a substitute to the resolution of yesterday, but the assembly refused to adopt it or to consider it.

On motion of Dr. Parsha, of Nebraska, a resolution was adopted for the appointment of a committee to formulate an expression of opinion upon the Chinese exclusion act as it affects foreign mis-

A. D. Randolph, of New York, presented a report of the special committee

Dr. Smith, of Baltimore, introduced Rev. Dr. Duncan, of the Episcopal Church, who represented the joint com-mittee which had under consideration the subject of church unity. This committee has been in session for the past two days, and Dr. Duncan was selected to represent the Episcopal Church before the assembly. He said there were four points which the Episcopal Church believed to be essential in a basis of union, and upon three of them they had practically agreed. The fourth, upon which no conclusion had been reached, involved largely a difference in terms. As a final outcome of the committee's work. Dr. Duncan prophesied that in the not far distant future instead of two church organizations there shall be but one. The moderator then an-nounced the standing committees.

The special committee on the Chinese exclusion act was anonunced to consist of S. M. Crtchings of Detroit, M. H. Stratton of Salem, N. J., and Cyrus L. Pershing of Potisville, Pa.

nounced to be vice-moderator.

At the afternoon session a resolution was offered by Dr. W. H. Roberts and adopted, authorizing a committee to in-vite President Cleveland to visit the assembly at his convenience.

The correspondence between the committee on Church unity and placopal commissions in the past year was read, to the great interest of the assembly. From this it appeared that the Episcopalians offered to make such changes in the methods of selecting members of the Episcopate as might be deemed essential. if only thereby the union of American Christians could be secured; aid further that the authority of the Presbytery was recognized in the Episcopal Church.

The Presbyterian committee suggested that the practice of exchange of pulpits, observed in all other evangelical denominations, be established under suitable regulations between the Presbyterian are Episcopal Churches of the United States

Rev. Charles L. Thompson, of New York, chairman of the committee on co-operation with other churches, presented the third annual report of that committee for consideration in connection with the previous report. The committee recommended that no church has been estab-lished by either of the denominations named in a field fully occupied and properly cared for by any evangelical organi-

Visit to the White House.

The assembly then adjourned, and proceeded in a body to call upon President and Mrs. Cleveland at the White House. President and Mrs. Cleveland received the commissioners of the visitors to the General Assembly in the East-room, in which the head of the procession had already massed, accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. Wilton Merie Smith, of New York, guests of the house, and Mrs. J. M. Wilson. Mrs. Cleveland wore a gray gown of soft, clinging material, trimmed with black velver, and looked the embodiment of good health.

In conclusion Dr. Craig delivered the assembly's invitation to the President to visit the assembly.

President Clewland said in response:

"Mr. Moderator and Gentlemen and Ladies,—I assure you it affords me the greatest personal satisfaction to meet the representatives of that great religious funomination which has done so much to make our people better and happier, and which is associated with so many tender and pleasing incidents in my own adividual experience. The thought is also in my mind that in the light of my official responsibilities and duties, there is a propriety in my welcoming you to this home of the nation's Chief Executive We profess to be still a Christian people Japplarse). The visitors were then presented by name to the President by Dr. Bartlett, and to Mrs. Cleveland by Colonel J. M. Wilson, superintendent of buildings and grounds, who was in dress uniform. They then strolled through the parlors and conservatory and afterwards took their departure.

This evening a general meeting in behalf of the Sunday school work of the church was held.

THE PENSION FRAUDS. What Mr. Maxwell Says About the Cases. More Arrests.

NORFOLK, VA., May 19.-Special .-Upon warrants sworn out by the Government detectives, Deputy Marshal Cross arrested Mrs. Jerome Etheridge and Dr. Perkins, of Princess Anne county, also three negroes, charged with violating the pension laws. Mrs. Etheridge was very sick, and gave bond for her appearance when desired. The negroes were locked up in jail, not being able to give the required bond.

It is understood that Mrs. Etheridge, who was one of the first ladies in the ounty, claims that if there has been by violation of the law on her part, was through ignorance, and not from desire to make money, as she was act-ng for the petitioners, not as an attor-ey, and received no compensation, but flied the papers as a matter of accommo-dation for the negroes, who lived in the vicinity of her residence.

The charges against Dr. Perkins are that he made certain statements which were not true, and that upon his certifi-cates improper persons received money. These charges Dr. Perkins denies.

THE WEEK'S TRADE.

What Dun and Bradstreet Say About Business in the South.

NEW YORK, May 19 .- R. G. Dun & Co's weekly review of trade will say: Stocks rally from extreme depression, but business shows no substantial improvement. The distribution of products to final consumers is rather less encour-ogirs, though the weather has been gen-erally more favorable and at some points helps retail trade. Wholesale business helps retail trade. Wholesale business and production show each week more heritation with regard to the crois next fall, the possibilities of tariff changes and meney uncertainties. Some large falleres and many of minor importance show the effects of increasing stringency in the money markets, and while money is comparatively easy here the pressure at other points has increased. Almost everywhere collections are slow, and about the future affects new undertakings, although the present volume of trade, based 570n past orders, is remarkably large. The treasury orders, is remarkably large. The treasury is in a stronger position than for some weeks past, but exports of gold have notably increased.

At Louisville the money market improves, though collections are slow. At Lettle Rock money is tight and trade dull, with slow collections; at Knoxville trade is sluggish and collections back ward, at Memphis trade is quiet, and at Nashville somewhat better, with In-creased confidence, though money is close. At Augusta there is no improvement; at Columbus trade is a little off and money tight, but at Atlanta business is satisfactory and collections good. Macon reports moderate trade, collections hardly fair and money close. At Charleston trade collections are medium but money in great demand. New Orleans reports quiet trade, with much apprehension of floods; cotton depressed, sugar weaker and money in increasing demand. The fron trade is weaker, Southern forced sales trade is weaker, Southern forced saies depressing the price. No improvement is seen in bar fron, and competition de-presses plates. Pittsburg having taken contracts at amazingly low prices, while allures for the week number 247 in the United States, against 169 for the same NEW YORK, May 10.-Bradstreet's

An Interesting Case Before the Hanover Court_Politics and the Crops.

HANOVER COURTHOUSE, May 19 .-Special.-The county court has been in session to-day. There was little business of importance transacted in court. A case, however, was continued until-the next term, which emphasizes the fact that the average Afro-American still in-herits, to an alarming degree, the habits of the Congo and furnishes an object lesson to the negrophilists and social equality praters of the North. A negro, William Shackleford, living near Ashland, was III. Under the intelligent treatmen of a white physician he soon so far re-covered as to be able to leave his bed Notwithstanding his rapid recovery as old negro, Albert Samuel, and his wife soon succeeded in persuading Shackleford that be had been "tricked" or "conjured." The victim readily submitted to the treatment of these trick doctors, and after a few doses of poisonous roots and herbs he was dead. An autopsy was held, and the doctors found unmistakable signs of poisoning. A bottle of the fatal decoction poisoning. A bottle of the fatal decocitor has been taken to Richmond for analysis Beyond a few such trivial occurrences as a fight between a preacher and a constable, there was little to interest out test in this county is a quiet one, there being little opposition to the old officers. In the adjoining counties of Caroline and King William a hot contest is being
